Minutes of Special Session of the Convention

March 7, 1968

A special session of the North Carolina State Convention of Original Free Will Baptists was held on March 7, 1968, in the auditorium of Mount Olive College, beginning at 10 a. m.

The following resolution was presented by Dr. W. Burkette Raper and was adopted by the Convention:

Whereas, the Board of Directors of Mount Olive College has been assigned by the Free Will Baptist State Convention of North Carolina the responsibility for the management and operation of the College; and

Whereas, the Board has carefully studied the needs of the College to determine the facilities and income needed for more adequate service to its students; and

Whereas, the Board has defined these needs in terms of both facilities and educational development and has approved goals and plans for a campaign to raise $1 million during 1968-1971 to help meet these needs; and

Whereas, the Mount Olive College Area Foundation and other friends of the College have agreed to work toward a goal of $500,000 in gifts during the next three years;

Therefore Be It Resolved, that the Free Will Baptist State Convention, as the sponsoring body of Mount Olive College, officially go on record as supporting the Board of Directors in its effort to provide the facilities and program funds urgently needed for completion and furnishing of the library, construction of a dormitory for men, physical education building, cafeteria-student union, and educational development; and

Be It Also Resolved, that this convention recommend to its churches and other affiliated denominational organizations a goal of $500,000 in gifts during the next three years; and

Be It Further Resolved, that this convention express its appreciation to the Mount Olive College Area Foundation and other friends for their interest and willingness to help provide the funds needed for the success of the Mount Olive College Development Fund Campaign.

An address was delivered by Dr. Leo Jenkins, president of East Carolina University, Greenville, North Carolina, entitled, "The Role of a Church-Related College."

REPORT OF THE FREE WILL BAPTIST PRESS FOUNDATION

In January of this year the Press Foundation occupied the newly constructed building on Highway Eleven, north of Ayden, and has enjoyed another successful year of operation.

The Press Foundation is a Free Will Baptist institution and should be patronized by every Free Will Baptist institution, church, and individual. If the Free Will Baptist Church did not exist, there would be no purpose for the existence of the Press Foundation.

There are four areas in which the Press Foundation can serve you:

1. Christian Bookstore and Gift Shop.

The bookstore has "everything in religious merchandise," ranging from church pews to books. At the present time the Press Foundation is operating two bookstores: one in the Free Will Baptist Press Foundation building, and another in Smithfield, North Carolina, located at 139 West Market Street.

2. Publishers.

The Press Foundation publishers a weekly religious magazine, The Free Will Baptist. Weekly bulletin folders are published and shipped monthly for use in the churches. Free Will Baptist graded Sunday school literature and Free Will Baptist League quarterlies are being published quarterly. REPORT OF STUDENT FELLOWSHIPS

During the past year the East Carolina University Fellowship has purchased a large two-story building across the street from the College at 612 East Tenth Street in Greenville. The purchase price of the building was $25,000. Of this amount, $24,000 was borrowed from the Church Finance Association at 6 percent interest payable $800 on the first of January and the first of July of each year. The Central Conference made available $3,000 to be used for furnishings. This is to be repaid at the rate of $500 per year. This gives the Fellowship a total indebtness of $27,000. The value of the house and its furnishings will exceed $30,000. The treasurer's report is included; however, the exact cost of the furnishings and other things necessary to the opening of the house are not known at this time and the expenditure of the $3,000 from the Central Conference is not included. We do feel sure that the total expenditure for the opening of the house will be less than $3,000. Also, included is a budget for the operation of the house for the year 1968-69.

At the close of the school year in 1968, the Fellowship was having an average attendance of 35 each Monday afternoon. Our first meeting for this school year will be on Monday, September 16, at 5:15 p. m. We anticipate having as large a group, if not more than we had last year. We have between 300 and 400 Free Will Baptist students enrolled at the University.

The Mount Olive College Fellowship is under the direction of Miss Hilda Owens. It is well attended and carries on a good program for the students. Since the College is denominationally owned, it is able to use the college facilities and does not have the building problem that other Fellowships will have.

We request that the month of December be designated as Student Fellowship Month to help raise the $6,000 budget.

We believe that the Fellowships are a worthwhile ministry and urge the support and prayers of all our people.

Our report to the State Convention, September 11, 1968, will be in the form of a special appreciation service for these men and women. These are recognized as "Co-Laborers" and this report and the achievements of this year are hereby dedicated to them.

"Faithfully They Labored"

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

For the Year Ending June 30, 1968

Introduction and History

The Free Will Baptist Children's Home has now passed its fifty-third year of activity. Since the first children were admitted, May 23, 1920, it has provided a little bit of home for the five hundred eighty-five children who have been welcomed into its care, as of August 14, 1968. Ninety-three of these are now in care at the Home and five others are being assisted in higher education.

While this Home now has a campus and other assets worth in excess of one million dollars, its greatest assets are found in the lives and services of the many noble men and women who were once boys and girls "in our care," and its greatest challenge and opportunity is the future of those who are now "in our care."

The commitment of this Home is " . . . That Life Shall Have Meaning . . . ." for the children who look to us for their physical, emotional, intellectual and spiritual needs.

Taking a Look at the Past Year

God has continued to bless us this year and our people have continued to demonstrate their loyalty to this ministry. From our income received during the year, we have been able to operate debt free and add $9,587.11 to our capital (building) fund. We have invested $14,890.74 in new construction during the year thus increasing our capital investment by that amount.

Religious Program

We have continued to be favored with the services of many of our ministers and lay leaders. The Rev. C. H. Overman has served as pastor of our church for many years. For the next few months he will be on leave while the Rev. Eugene Sumner will pastor our church through June 30, 1969. The ladies of the Second Western District have continued their faithful work with our youth groups. To these persons we are deeply indebted. We have

Sunday school and league services each Sunday, preaching services twice each month, and vesper services on Wednesday evenings. In addition to the services mentioned above, our children and staff visit churches in the area for various services.

Health Program

We are very grateful for the very good health our children have enjoyed during the year. We have had very few cases of serious illness and in each case satisfactory recovery has been experienced.

We have continuel to enjoy the very faithful and unselfish services of Dr. Josephine E. Newell, general practitioner of Bailey, and her staff; Dr. Zyba Massey, dentist of Zebulon; Dr. A. G. Inscoe, dentist of Spring Hope; the Nash County Health Department; the Carolina General Clinic and Wilson Memorial Hospital of Wilson; as well as others who have assisted them. We feel we owe a very great debt of gratitude to those who, in service of love, have done so much for the health of our children.

Special Services

As we attempt to meet the spiritual, physical, emotional, and intellectual needs of the children entrusted in our care, we are receiving more and more assistance from professional agencies within the state and area. In the past, we have been assisted by the Out-Patient Clinics of Duke Hospital and the North Carolina Memorial Hospital; Dr. S. F. Horne, Dermatologist of Rocky Mount; the Nash-Edgecombe Mental Health Clinic; the North Carolina Commission for the Blind; the Speech Therapy Clinic sponsored by the Wilson County Easter Seals Fund; the Duke Endowment Child Care Consultant; the Crippled Children's Section of the State Board of Health; and the Health and Welfare Departments of several counties in the area. During the past year the evaluation and consultant service of the Group Child Care Project of the Southeastern Child Care Association; the service of Dr. James Valone, plastic surgeon of Raleigh; and Dr. R. C. Whitehurst Jr., orthodontist of Wilson have been added to the special services from which our children have benefited.

Farm Program

The farm was operated again during the year by Children's Home personnel and children, with Mr. Henry Mitchell serving as farm manager. Mr. Mitchell and the children have done a good job on the farm and the Lord has blessed with an abundant harvest for which we are grateful.

Our Staff of Workers

We continue to be blessed with the faithful services of an experienced and dedicated staff of workers. To them is due much credit for the success of this Home. We believe their faithfulness and dedication is unsurpassed anywhere within our denomination.

We are very encouraged by the increased interest some of our young and capable Free Will Baptists are showing in child service as their Christian career. We believe our prayers that "the Lord of the Harvest will send forth laborers" is being answered. During the past year we had the good fortune to add Mrs. Rachel Carraway and Miss Pattie Davis to our staff. Others are preparing for this service in the future.

Education

We wish to express our sincere thanks for the interest taken in our children by the Nash County School System. The local school, the County Administration, and the County Board of Education are all being most helpful in considering and providing for the educational needs of our children. We expect to enjoy our new high school in the new Southern High in Nash County and the improved primary and elementary Middlesex School. We are also grateful for the many persons who are helping make it possible for us to increase our assistance to our students in higher education.

Membership

This Home is a member in good standing of the North Carolina Association of Child Caring Institutions, the Southeastern Child Care Association, and the Group Child Care Project sponsored by the Southern Association through the School of Social Work of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

A Look to the Future

We believe our Golden Anniversary Development Program, which was adopted in 1964, provides the goals, objectives, and plans of promotion necessary for our guidance during the next year.

Financial Report and Summary of Gifts

Enclosed is a report of our receipts and disbursements and a summary of religious contributions received for the year.

Recommendations to the State Convention

1. We recommend that this Convention join with the Board of Trustees, administration, staff, and children in our expression of thanks to all who helped to make possible the achievements of the past year.

2. We recommend that this Convention express its special appreciation for the service and dedication of our staff.

3. We recommend that this Convention continue to designate November and May as Children's Home Months and that the second Sunday in May continue to be designated as Children's Home Day.

4. We recommend that this Convention express its sincere appreciation for the services rendered by those who have served as co-laborers (staff members) of this Home and that the achievements of this year be dedicated to them.

5. We recommend that the 1969 session of the State Convention be held with the Free Will Baptist Children's Home in tribute to our children.

Respectfully submitted,

M. L. Johnson,

Superintendent-Treasurer

REPORT OF THE STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

We are glad to report a well attended and inspiring annual meeting of our North Carolina Free Will Baptist Sunday School Convention in April with the First Free Will Baptist Church of Goldsboro. The program was built around the theme, "Now Is the Time!" and the institute periods featured an address by Mr. Graham Frazelle of Beulaville, on "The Sunday School From a Space Age View," emphasizing advanced vision and new methods to meet the challenge of today; a workshop conducted by Mrs. Vance Link of Enfield, on the use of visual aids in teaching; and an illuminated presentation of "The Most Important Person" (the importance of total envolvement) by the Rev. David Charles Hansley, current "Minister of the Year."

This was the first session of the convention held under the new "Cooperative Program for North Carolina Free Will Baptist Sunday Schools," designed to bring about more coordination of the work of the State Convention and the various district conventions, and to encourage more participation of the district conventions in the statewide program of promotional work. Most of the actions taken by the convention in its annual session were in furtherance of this program. Five district presidents were installed as members of the executive board to help with working out details of the new plan.

The field secretary reported interest shown in a series of preconvention conferences held in most of the districts over the state.

In the election of officers, the Rev. Jerry Rowe was chosen as president of the convention for a two year term; Mr. Roney Davis was elected vice-president; and the Rev. Edmund Gonzalez was chosen as recording secretary. Mr. W. Milton Wiggs was reelected treasurer.

Since the session in April, most of the activities of the field secretary have been in connection with promotion of our youth conferences at Cragmont Assembly and in conferences with district leaders regarding the setting up of the new cooperative program. We have a combined attendance at our two convention-sponsored youth conferences at Cragmont Assembly of 216, and have reason to believe this one of the most successful seasons in this phase of our field work program.

We are encouraged to believe that this year will see our new program put into productive operation, looking toward an ever-increasing vision and endeavor in the promotion of better Sunday schools for Original Free Will Baptist churches.

Respectfully submitted,
Jerry Rowe, President
L. E. Ballard, Field Secretary

THE REPORT OF THE MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Spiritual Life Conference was held in Ayden at the Britt-Farmer Funeral Home, instead of the Ayden church, due to the heating system at the church being out of order. Because of the ice and sleet, attendance was less than in previous years.

David Charles Hansley was selected by the judges for the Minister of the Year Award from among seventeen nominees.

A very helpful program was prepared and directed by the program committee, at the annual meeting in June, during our stay in the mountains hosted by Cragmont Assembly and the staff.

The Ministers' Institute, under the direction of Dr. Michael R. Pelt, was a great success at Mount Olive Junior College, July 15-18, 1968.

The Rev. Melvin Everington of Deep Run was elected president for 1968-69. He will lead the association in its activities.

The First church of Kinston will host the January, 1969, midyear Spiritual Life Conference.

The officers appreciate your prayers and help.

Yours in Christian Service,
James A. Evans, Past President

MISSION BOARD REPORT

To the 1968 session of the North Carolina State Convention of Original Free Will Baptist:

I. Greetings

We wish to thank each of you for the fine support that you have given the mission board during the past year. With your help, it has been one of the best years in our history.

Through the leadership of God we have seen great things happen during 1967-1968. It has been a year of optimism, and times of pessimism; times of joy, and times of sorrow; times of praise, and times of criticism, but in every moment I have felt the precious fulfillment of the promise of Christ in Matthew 28:20, " . . . and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." I can truthfully say that His presence has been more real, because of your prayers and support than ever before in my life.

It was during this past year that we had the privilege of seeing a young man and his wife submit to the call of God to go to the regions beyond. The Rev, Harold Jones and his wife Sandra, are now in school preparing for the labors of the future as Free Will Baptist missionaries. They will be visiting many of our churches during this next year.

The Rev. and Mrs. Joe Barrow now have been approved by the Africa Evangelical Fellowship and will be going to the field the first of the year. They are planning to sail for the country of Rhodesia between Christmas and New Year.

Our home mission work is progressing very nicely with many of the places that are being supported by the State Mission Board, growing to the place that they will be self-supporting. With this happening the state board will be able to go to new locations for churches.

II. Recommendations

1. That this convention remind the churches and pastors of the great responsibility of each Christian to become a active soul winner for Christ.
2. That we endeavor to get 10 percent of our members to become active in soul winning.
3. That the North Carolina State Convention approve a budget of $60,000 for missions for the year of 1968-69.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL SECRETARY

Greetings:

In the three short months that I have worked, the office of the General Secretary has proven to be of great value to our denomination. I think that the denomination does see the importance of this office and how it can and must occupy a prominent place in our constituency; thus, its contribution will be significant.

We are looking toward the completion of a Convention Brochure and church activity calendar for 1969. This is to inform our people of the program and work of our Convention. It has been attempted to show in pictures, and in easy reading, the many phases of our North Carolina State Convention's activities. A free copy will be available for every Originial Free Will Baptist family. Please listen for the report of the Executive Committee on Wednesday afternoon of the Convention.

It is hoped that a brochure on the office and work of the General Secretary will be available for distribution in the very near future also.

Our travel for these first three months has averaged 2,028 miles per month. This should be an indication of how extensive our travel will be in the future.

It has been our desire to save time at our Convention; therefore, we have prepared this booklet of reports.

To better inform all who attend this Convention, displays have been prepared and set up under the direction of our office.

I am grateful for the opportunity of working with our Original Free Will Baptist people of North Carolina, and with the leaders and trustees of this Convention. I say that we have a denomination to be proud of, and that we have a message to tell to the nation. We should become busy with the Lord's work, and labor in His vineyard that all who want to follow the Christ through our church may have that wonderful opportunity to do so. Let us make 1969 the year of spiritual growth throughout this state.

David C. Hansley, General Secretary

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON CHAPLAINS

The North Carolina State Convention of Original Free Will Baptists has two chaplains on active duty. They are Chaplain Major John B. Narron, United States Air Forces; and Chaplain Major Daniel L. Rivers, United States Army.

Chaplain Narron is a member of the Central Conference. He has just returned from a duty assignment in Germany. His new assignment, which was effective August 1, 1968, is Whiteman Air Force Base, Missouri. He was on leave in North Carolina from August 1 through August 25, 1968.

Chaplain Rivers is a member of the Western Conference. He is stationed at Oakland Army Base in California. This base is the Port of Embarkation for all United States Army personnel going into the Far East. Chaplain Rivers says, "The hours are long, and the personal needs of soldiers going to such places as Vietnam are great."

The Commission on Chaplains of this Convention is a member of the General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel. It is through this organization that our chaplains are endorsed since we are too small numerically to be given a quota by the armed services. The General Commission also gives us the opportunity to participate actively in the formation of policy that effects all Protestant chaplains. The executive secretary of the General Commission represents us and other member bodies to the Chiefs of Chaplains. The fee for membership in the General Commission on Chaplains is $100 per chaplain annually.

Presently, we could endorse a man in the Navy Chaplaincy. The requirements are: academically, a degree from an accredited divinity school or seminary; spiritually, a call by God to minister to people in the name of Christ, and especially to the ministry of our men and women in the Armed Forces of our nation.

Respectfully submitted,
Sheldon Howard, Secretary

CRAGMONT ASSEMBLY REPORT

1968 Cragmont Assembly Operations to August 19, 1968

Up to this time, we have experienced a good year at Cragmont Assembly, and the prospects are good for successful operation until closing time for the season, which has been set for October 28. Here are some information headlights:

Sponsored Conferences Held to Date	7
Attendance at These Conferences	673
Guests Registered for Shorter Periods	179
Registered Visitors not Entertained	75
Total Registrations to Date	927
Received for Services Rendered and for Special Funds to Date	$12,765
Paid Out of Receipts to Date	$ 9,724

The following items of new equipment have been received and installed at the Assembly since opening in May: new mattresses for beds in the main building and motel (and some cottage beds) from the women of the state; a dryer for our laundry given by the First Free Will Baptist Church of Wilson; an intercom system given by youth organizations of the state; a walk-in cooler and refrigerated food box donated by our friend the late Fred S. Powers; a new water heater for Cottage Number 2; an institutional food mixer; a new linen cabinet; recreational equipment given by Reedy Branch church; and several small items from various sources.

The cost, or estimated values of all these items will be given in our final report at the end of operations, which will be published in "The Free Will Baptist." However, we do feel that under the conditions we should state here that the gifts of the friends of the late Rev. Fred S. Powers have been conservatively estimated at $1,200, which is perhaps the largest individual donation of equipment ever made to Cragmont. We also wish to state that money is being made available for a new sign for our campus, to cost not less than $300, as a memorial to departed friends of the Assembly. It is expected that the new sign will be erected by October 1, at which time full dedication will be announced.

We do not feel that it would be proper to close this report without mentioning some who rendered signal services in helping prepare the institution for opening this season, and installing the equipment. Among those deserving special mention are the Revs. Joe Ingram, Harry and Harold Jones, Willis Wilson, David Charles Hansley, and layman, Wayne Vincent. We wish to express also our deep appreciation for the cooperation of leaders of the sponsoring state convention, the members of the Cragmont Board of Directors, the directors of the various conferences, and our regular staff of workers at Cragmont.

We wish to remind our people that the Assembly will be open during the last half of September and through October to give an opportunity to those who would like to spend a few days enjoying the mountains when they are clothed in royal splendor, to share the facilities of Cragmont with us at very moderate cost to family or church groups or individuals.

Respectfully submitted,
Willis Wilson,
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

REPORT OF MOUNT OLIVE COLLEGE

GREETING:

"The history of mankind is a race between education and catastrophe," wrote Will Durant, one of the leading historians of our time. In recent years Free Will Baptists of North Carolina have achieved distinction in the State and in the Nation for their recognition of the importance of education. Beginning with a simple resolution in 1951 our Convention has developed a fully accredited junior college with financial assets today in excess of $2 million.

During these years the College has served nearly 2,000 young men and women in college level studies and hundreds of others through off-campus programs, institutes, and conferences.

It is not an easy task, but on behalf of the Board of Directors and the personnel of the College, I want to assure this Convention that we are putting forth every effort to develop a college that is Christian in its commitment, excellent in its educational program, sound in fiscal affairs, loyal to Free Will Baptists, and one that cares for its students.

We are made humble by the confidence you have expressed in us and we are inspired by your generous support.

ENROLLMENT

During 1967-68 Mount Olive College served 424 students. Of this number 360 were enrolled during the fall semester, 36 others entered during the spring and 28 new students attended summer school this year. (Total summer school enrollment was 75.)

The statewide system of public community colleges, which includes institutions at Goldsboro (15 miles from Mount Olive) and Kinston (a distance of 30 miles) is resulting in a decrease in the number of day students who attend Mount Olive College. Although all resident facilities will be filled this fall, we anticipate approximately 60 days student less than last year, a decrease from 144 to approximately 84.

The reasons are primarily financial. Students who attend public community colleges may pay as little as 10-15% of the cost of their education with the balance being paid from public resources; students at Mount Olive College last year paid approximately 60% of our operating cost. To put it differently, tuition and fees for a day student at Lenoir Community College last year were $141; at Mount Olive College the charge was $735.

We believe, however, that Mount Olive College has much more to offer in areas of student life and in its emphasis upon moral and spiritual values. To assist students who want the advantages of attending a Christian College, we are developing a broad program of financial aid.

Development Program

With the opening of the fall semester, we will occupy our new $400,000 library. Completion of this facility will bring to $1,700,000 the investment which the College now has in its physical plant.

Plans for a dormitory to accommodate 126 men are now being prepared by our architect and if our fund-raising efforts this fall are successful, we will be able to award contracts for this project before the end of the year.

Other buildings which are urgently needed include a cafeteria-student union, physical education building, a chapel, and administration building.

Gifts and pledges to our campaign to raise $1 million between January 1, 1968 and June 30, 1971, now exceed $300,000. To assist our churches in this effort, we are continuing our series of development fund dinners. The Rev. Austin Carter, who returned to Mount Olive College this spring as director of development, is in charge of this program.

Financial Affairs

We are grateful for the financial support given Mount Olive College during the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1968. A summary of denominational gifts is given below:

North Carolina
Eastern Conference	$28,509.20
Central Conference	27,555.34
Western Conference	18,179.19
Cape Fear Conference	9,751.93
Albemarle Conference	4,811.49
Pee Dee Conference	527.60
Piedmont Conference	820.00
North Carolina Statewide Bodies	2,352.91
Others	6.60
Special Gifts (Campaign Development Fund)	8,000.00
Other States
Florida	1,342.00
Georgia	387.24
South Carolina	499.75
New Mexico	60.00
Total from Free Will Baptists	$102,803.25

Many private colleges in the United States today face a precarious future due to the rising cost of operation. Some institutions have already folded, some have merged with neighboring colleges, and others have become public.

We are concerned but not fearful about the future of Mount Olive College. Today the institution is educationally progressive; in terms of purpose it has a strong Christian commitment; and financially we are operating on a balanced budget.

The condition of academic, spiritual, and fiscal health can be maintained only if we Free Will Baptists continue and increase our present level of support. Last year denominational gifts accounted for approximately 14% of our operating budget. We have reasons to be proud of this kind of giving. On the national level church-related colleges receive only 12% of their operating budget from their sponsoring denominations. Although Free Will Baptists are not wealthy and are late comers to higher education, we recognize that our future may be a race between education and catastrophe.

Summary

Mount Olive College is not all that Free Will Baptists need for it to be; it is not all that we aspire for it to be; but it represents the best we were capable of doing in seventeen years with what we had.

We shall not stop here. In the race between education and catastrophe we shall stretch forth every nerve and press forward toward the mark of the high calling of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

We do not ask for praise when we fail, but we do ask for understanding. With the continued confidence and support of this Convention and by our working together we can make Mount Olive College an investment that will both serve and enrich Free Will Baptists.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON SCOUTING

Section 21 of the Constitution and Bylaws of this Convention entitled, "The Committee on Scouting," states in a very simple manner the duties of this commission: "It shall be the responsibility of this committee to formulate procedures relative to the promotion of church sponsored troop organizations and the God and Country Award in Original Free Will Baptist Churches in North Carolina."

Any minister or church interested in organizing a troop in a local church or that desires information on scouting in the church, should obtain the book, "Scouting in Protestant Churches." We are making this available to you for only the cost of the book plus mailing. Send 50 cents to the North Carolina State Convention Headquarters of Original Free Will Baptists, Box 424, Ayden, North Carolina 28513.

The God and Country Program Book for Original Free Will Baptists is ready for the press as soon as this committee can meet with a representative of the National Council of Boy Scouts of America. This committee will meet with this representative who is with us today in this Convention. Mr. "Bos" Boswell, representative of the National Boy Scouts of America, will be glad to talk with any minister or delegate about the scout work in their local church. You will find him at the Boy Scout display.

The committee has had several meetings this year. The Rev. C. B. Hansley, pastor of Sandy Plain church near Pink Hill, North Carolina, was elected chairman.

REPORT OF OBITUARY COMMITTEE

Whereas, during the past year (in April) God called from our midst one of our ministers, the Rev. Romie Mitchell, a member of the Western Conference and a member of Piney Grove church, Kenly, North Carolina;

Therefore, be it resolved that we express our gratitude for his years of service by a moment of silent prayer, followed with an oral prayer by the Rev. Paul Warner.

(The committee does not overlook the tragic death of the Rev. Fred Powers; but since our convention year ended June 30, his obituary will be in next year's report.)

REPORT OF RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

1. Whereas, both messages delivered by the Rev. C. F. Bowen and Dr.

W. B. Raper have been most inspiring and challenging; therefore, be it resolved that both sermons be published in "The Free Will Baptist."
